

HOUSE SIMPLE RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, In the course of human events, occasionally one great event is augmented by the works of Mother Nature acting in the interest of the human race; and

WHEREAS, This great, outstanding act of Mother Nature occurred on the Seventeenth Day of March, 'way back in the year 1928 when the stork stopped at the residence of one O'Morgan Estate in the County of Nolan, State of Texas, to drop off one Sir Jack C. Patrick O'Morgan, our brilliant young colleague representing the great people of Kaufman and environs; and

WHEREAS, Our colleague has been known to feel that the work of the Texas Legislators in some ways resembles the legend of St. Patrick's Purgatory; and

WHEREAS, Sir Patrick O'Morgan has lived up to the great examples set by his sainted patron, including the "wearing of green, " NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the great free State of Texas do rise in humble homage to its patron Member O'Morgan, and that those present today who at this moment do not have a touch of green in his lapel be officially excused so that they make take whatever steps are necessary to carry out in full the "Wearing of Green" in honor of our fellow Member, Jack C. Patrick O'Morgan.
